00:07	00:34	VO		Forty-nine miles off the coast of Valencia Spain is the picturesque Mediterranean island of Ibiza. Fittingly named after the Phoenician god of music, today Ibiza has become the dance music mecca of the world. Since the 1980s club-goers and DJs from around the globe have descended on clubs like Space, for hot, decadent fun. It's here that DJs can make a name for themselves, and partygoers can dance away their troubles for days on end.

00:45	00:50	VO		Legendary DJ Steve Lawler has been an influential force on Ibiza's turntables since 1995.

00:59	01:19	VO		As a child of the acid-house generation, Steve Lawler was making beats long before the genre was established in mainstream clubland. And he hasn't stopped since. His tracks and remixes have defied the genre's boundaries and have been released by some of the world's biggest electronic dance music labels. Although Steve has rocked parties all over the world, Space on Ibiza remains one of his favorite spots.
